The Tomb of John Botwright S.T.P. Under an Arch on the North Side of the Chancell lyes the Effigies of John Botright S.T.P. the first Minister of this Church after it was built. In the Library is a little black book of his own hand writing which Contains a Terrier of all the lands belonging to this Church as also the names of Benefactors, an Inventary of its plate, Ornaments, Books, Vestments, &c. being as Intire an account as is Extant of this Nature. It begins thus. Iste Liber dicitur Gratia Dei Navicula recta Ecclesiæ Sti Petri de Swaffham Market facta in Festo Exaltacõis año Dñi 1454 & regni regis Henrici Sexti 33o. Continens ut olim in Arca Noæ certa Tristega 1o Mansiunculas &c Postea. Acta Sunt hec per manus Mari Johannis Botwright S.T.P. Rectoris Ecclie ejusdm predictæ Dni Regis H. Supdci Capellani ac Magri Collegij Corp: Christi & Bte Marie Cantab: die & anno quibꝰ Supra Ætatis Prefati Mri Johis 54o Inductionis ejusdm ad id Beneficium 19o.

The Effigies of The Tinker with his Dog & Boudget so frequently talk'd off to be seen in this Church, are now quite lost, tho' undoubtedly such a person was a Great Benefactor to this Church. If his name was Chapman (as is Reported) I find in the aforesd book he gave CXXll toward the Steple. The 4 Coats following are upon the aforesd Mr Botrights tomb.

Clement Spelman Esqr gave Several Books to the Library here, amongst which is a most Curious Masse book.

Carv'd upon an old seat.

a Good Neighbour, Truly Just & Wisely Charitable. He loved the Church & her well composed Liturgy & was a Constant Receiver of Holy Comunions. He endowed the Vicaradge of This Town with a Good house & Some Land adjoyning to it. He left this world the 14 day of October in the yeare of his age 64 and in the yeare of our Lord God 1680.

I am inform'd this man was in all respects ill deserving the Character upon this monumt nor is there any thing of his Endowing the Vicaridge with house or Land.

At the west end of the Steple is a broken Crucifix of Stone, which seems to have been very beautifull when Intire.
Adjoyning to the south side of the Church is built a Neat Library by that Worthy Gentleman Roger North of Rougham Esqr, and by him and other Benefactors furnished with a good Collection of Books.
At the East end of the aforesd North isle is painted a Crucifix upon the Window and under it these words Ꝑ: pur Amys . . .

She had by her beloved husband, four Sons, and Eight daughters, and then departed this Life, the Twenty ninth day of September, and was buried the first of October, Anno Dom. 1709, Aged 41 years.

A mother, who with every Grace was blest,
With all the Ornaments of Vertue drest,
With whatso'ere Religion recommends,
The best of Wifes, of Mothers, and of Friends,
And tho' by death, her body's turned to dust,
'Tis fitt we still commemorate the just,
'Twas here She did adore the highest Lord,
Who to her Soul great Comfort did afford,
'Twas here She did, with great Joy and Content
Receive God's Holy Word and Sacrament,
Since then she loved, this sacred place so well,
'Tis very meet that here her name should dwell.

And shew the world my offerings at thine urne.
And yet not meerly as a mother make
This sad oblation for a dear Childs sake,
For (Readers) know she was more than a Child
In infant age she was as grave as mild.
All that in Children Duty call'd might bee
In her was Friendship and true pietie
By reason and Religion she at seaven
Prepar'd her self and found her way to Heaven.
High Heaven thou hast her and didst take her hence
The perfect patterne of obedience.
At those few years as only lent to show
What duty young ones to their parents owe
And by her Early Gravity Appearing
Full ripe for God by serving and by Fearing
To Teach the old to fix on him their Trust
Before their bodies shall return to dust.

The next following verses are written on parchm$^{t}$ & hung up in frames. In memory of the right wor$^{ll}$ & Worthy Knight S$^{r}$ Anthony Browne who departed this Life the 26 of March Anno 1623.

Reader this monument of worthie Browne
Reports the ruin of a house pull'd downe
In which was found much Furniture of Worth
When death Comanded their departing forth
Truth of Religion Justice in his place
Comended meekness Joyn'd with many a Grace
As bountie in his howse in speech most kind
And affable to all Content in mind
With his Estate free from all ambition
Mild moderate and fair was his Condition
Though much he had yet would he deal with little
Whose wisdome told him Earthly things are fickle
The Chaine that holds us all even Love of breath
Let him go Loose and willing to his death
This house thus falling each one getts a part
Of all which in his Life dwelt in one heart
Brave worthy Knight beloved of all that knew
What for thy Vertue to thy self was due
Rest here thy Mortalls till that Trump do Sound
Which empty shall this all devouring ground.

In St James Church yard, Bury.

In y^e South side of the Chancell which chancell is of late structure, and (observe) has no Door into it from the Church yard. And when the Rev^d M^r John Bridge, Rebuilt our Chancell at Palgrave, I advis'd him to take pattern by this Building, which he consented to. It being more like a Quire in Cathedral churches &c. and I well Remember when the old chancell was in being, there were only a parcell of idle Boys, and the meanest of the parish us'd to come in at y^e chancell Door, and throw their hats & caps upon the comunion Table, and sit themselves upon the Rails which Inclos'd it. Which was very indecent. M^r William Bokenham and myself were Church wardens that Year viz^t 17 [blank in orig.] The not having a Door into our Chancell has been objected to by several persons, but I never heard any substantial Reason given, so as to persuade an alteration &c.
